GREETINGS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

PRELUDE “Blessed Assurance” – arr. Roger Summers

Cathy Fafrak, Organist

*LENTEN INTROIT

Welsh Folk song, arr. Hugh Davies from Psalm 107

mf (unison) (div.)

Praise the Lord, for he is good; for his mercies ever sure

(unis.) (div.)

Let his ransomed people raise songs of their Redeemer's praise. A - men.

*CALL TO WORSHIP (inspired by the Green Day song, 21 Guns)

Leader: When you're at the end of the road and you lost all sense of control;

People: Our thoughts have taken their toll.

Leader: When your mind breaks the spirit of your soul;

People: Our faith walks on broken glass.

Leader: Nothing's ever built to last, and you're in ruins;

People: In this state, we can turn to God.

Leader: And in that state, true worship can happen.

People: We come as we are and we throw our arms up to the sky to find comfort in this hour.

*OPENING HYMN

"Holy, Holy, Holy"

1. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! Lord God Al - might - y!
2. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! All the saints a - dore thee,
3. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! Though the dark - ness hide thee,
4. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! Lord God Al - might - y!

Ear - ly in the morn - ing our song shall rise to thee.
cast - ing down their gold - en crowns a - round the glass - y sea;
though the eye of sin - ful man thy glo - ry may not see,
All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! Mer - ci - ful and might - y, cher - u - bim and ser - a - phim fall - ing down be - fore thee,
on - ly thou art ho - ly; there is none be - side thee,
Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! Mer - ci - ful and might - y,

God in three per - sons, bless - ed Trin - i - ty!
which wert, and art, and ev - er - more shalt be.
per - fect in power, in love and pur - i - ty.
God in three per - sons, bless - ed Trin - i - ty.

CONFESSION (unison) (written by Tim Graves and posted on LiturgyBits: Little bits for worship)

Leader: We've been in exile.

People: We've allowed ourselves to be tempted by the idols of things and power.

Leader: We've found it isn't what we thought. Retail therapy and yearning for a soda pop does nothing to build up our world.

People: They are all fizz and sugar, satiating only temporarily.

Leader: We're left with the same emptiness.

People: We're left without the spirit-words of God. We're alone in harshness and brokenness.

Leader: Acknowledging our idolatry and mistakes, we turn back to the living water.

We turn back to the love that flows forward bringing justice and hope to all of humanity.

People: The word that comes from God's mouth does not return empty.

God's word does as God intends.

Leader: Always.

People: Always. Amen.

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

Stacie Yates

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

PRAYER RESPONSE

"Hear Our Prayer, O Lord"

From Psalm 143

George Whelpton (1897)

Hear our prayer, O Lord, hear our prayer, O Lord; in - cline thine ear to us, and grant us thy peace. A - men.

SCRIPTURE

Psalm 63

Pete Metzloff, Liturgist

Leader: O God, you are my God, I seek you,
People: my soul thirsts for you;
 Leader: my flesh faints for you,
People: as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.
 Leader: So I have looked upon you in the sanctuary,
People: beholding your power and glory.
 Leader: Because your steadfast love is better than life,
People: my lips will praise you.
 Leader: So I will bless you as long as I live;
People: I will lift up my hands and call on your name.
 Leader: My soul is satisfied as with a rich feast,
People: and my mouth praises you with joyful lips
 Leader: when I think of you on my bed,
People: and meditate on you in the watches of the night;
 Leader: for you have been my help,
People: and in the shadow of your wings I sing for joy.
 Leader: My soul clings to you;
People: your right hand upholds me.
 Leader: But those who seek to destroy my life
People: shall go down into the depths of the earth;
 Leader: they shall be given over to the power of the sword,
People: they shall be prey for jackals.
 Leader: But the king shall rejoice in God; all who swear by him shall exult,
People: for the mouths of liars will be stopped.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to our Maker, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

One Great Hour of Sharing is the Lenten Offering of the United Church of Christ that supports disaster, refugee, and development activities. Our gifts become part of a loving legacy in ways we can't foresee. Our gifts become blessings to people we don't know and blesses in ways we can't expect. We can make a difference more than we can imagine. On March 31, 2019, give with thanks and with joy. Donations also accepted thru the on-line giving option on our website.

EASTER CANDY NEEDED

We need candy to fill our eggs for the Easter egg hunt. If you are willing to donate a bag of candy it would be greatly appreciated. There is a box in the welcoming area where you can put your donation. The only requirements are that the candy must be individually wrapped (no jelly beans), that the candy is able to fit into an egg and NO CHOCOLATE CANDY that could melt if it gets warm enough the day of the hunt. Thank you for your help.

CHILDREN OF INMATES – 9TH ANNUAL EASTER BAG PROJECT

March 24th – April 14th

You are invited to participate in our church's effort to share encouragement and comfort to children whose parents are incarcerated in Medina County Jail. There are not many children this year so grab one before they are gone! Beginning on Sunday, March 24th and ending with a blessing of the filled Easter Bags on Palm Sunday, April 14th, you can help reach out to a hurting young person by providing an Easter Bag which will be delivered during Easter weekend. Instructions and children's names can be found in the East Room and on the table near the kitchen. We are also looking for volunteers to help deliver the bags to families on Saturday, April 20th. A sign-up sheet to help with this effort is on the table in the hall next to the kitchen. During this season of re-birth and hope, let us share the good news of new life with an outpouring of love and kindness to Medina County children. Questions? E-mail Jeannine at jmw597b@yahoo.com or call the church office (330-725-4559).

Bicentennial Tidbits

CARL JESSIE
CUSTODIAN

The Rev. Truman D. Whitaker was installed as pastor in 1957 and served until 1969. As during prior pastorates, renovation and remodeling took place. The exterior walls of the church were cleaned by sandblasting, a library was created at the rear of the sanctuary under the closed balcony classrooms and the basement classrooms were remodeled. In 1961 the church's first Assistant/Associate pastor was hired.

(Source: Betty Zarney's 1995 History)

In 1960, the year I started working here, the sanctuary was remodeled. An eight foot lighted cross was added to the Chancel. It is now in the chapel. A library was build under the balcony. The East Room was enlarged by removing the three small classroom.

GOSPEL GALLEY

by Vicki Miller

I remember as a child getting completely confused about "Psalm Sunday" and the "Book of Palms". I thought it was a spelling or pronunciation error. As I got older and started to study the bible, I just couldn't get into the "Book of Psalms". I have never enjoyed reading poetry- I think I'm a "lazy reader" who just likes to get to the point and not have to work at interrupting the meaning of what's being said. I'm also not musically inclined, so to try and read the psalms as a type of song or chant didn't work for me either. When I read that Luke would be focusing on the Psalms this Lenten season I was willing to give it another try. I have to be honest; I think I have read most of the Psalms this weekend and none of them spoke to me. So, I googled "why don't I like to read the Psalms". I got a great answer and a good suggestion to get past my ambivalence. The writer used the analogy of the Psalms as a type of music or radio station you may or may not like. We all have our favorite stations and tend to bypass the stations that play music we don't enjoy. I like pop music and I really don't care for country; but if I'm stuck in a car with a country music lover, and open my mind, I'll probably find a lot of things that actually speak to me in a country song. Psalms are the same – I need to learn to open my mind, give them a chance and learn from them. Google suggested that I follow a 3 step process ☺:

1. Read Them. First simply read and enjoy the Psalm. Kind of like taking a walk... What do you notice about the Psalm? What is the mood? Is it a lament or psalm of praise? What strikes you about the Psalm? What is happening?
2. Pray Them. Remember, the Psalms are prayers to teach us to pray. Notice how personal it is... Simply pray the Psalm back to God and personalize it.
3. Apply Them. Then pay attention to how the Holy Spirit might be speaking to you in the Psalm.

Enjoy the Psalms, and may they lead you into a deeper and richer life of prayer!

GARFIELD FAMILY FOOD DONATIONS

Thank you all for continuing to purchase food for our Garfield Families. Please remember when you bring in your produce to place it in the refrigerator. Also, if you purchase bread or anything in advance be mindful of the use by date. Some of the things that have come in early have gone bad very quickly. Thank you again for your continued support.

Isaiah 55:1-9

Open Invitation

Isaiah offers in nine verses the heart of the biblical message: God loves us, no matter what, reaching out to us even (or especially) in the worst of times, making promises that are not pie-in-the-sky, not theoretical. God promises what we most deeply yearn for: homecoming when we're lost, a rich feast when we're hungry, fresh water to satisfy our thirst, and a community of hope when we long for meaning—something greater than ourselves through which we might be a blessing to the world. There's no price of admission to this feast, and everyone (even the most unexpected) will be invited to the party.

A Litany for Amistad Sunday (based on Isaiah 43)

The 1839 slave revolt aboard the Amistad brought Congregationalists from New England together to defend the rights of these slaves to their freedom. That defense finally came before the U.S. Supreme Court. When it was finished, the slaves were freed and the American Mission Society (a forerunner of the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries) was formed.

One: In the hold of the ship, the Amistad, the slaves were chained and rowed together.

MANY: But God made a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters.

One: Chains were broken, slaves revolted,
But God said, "Do not remember the old ways I am about to do a new thing."

MANY: The slaves were recaptured, prisoners again, but not alone. A committee was formed to support and defend. Advocates, lawyers, ministers and more. People of faith who brought clothing and money and food.

One: Now it springs forth; do you see it?

MANY: Before the court, the Supreme Court, justice, this time, prevailed,

One: "I will make a way through the wilderness," said the God of the slaves.

MANY: And the slaves were acquitted. All were set free.

One: God gave water and rivers in the desert so the thirsty could drink.

MANY: The slaves went home but their friends persisted.

One: For abolition, for education, for liberty. The American Missionary Society was born, and continues today as part of the United Church of Christ.

MANY: So says God, "These are the people whom I formed for myself. So they might declare my praise."

One: Let us worship our God, a God of freedom and justice. Oh God of the Amistad,

MANY: Give hope to our prayers and make true our hope, that liberty and equality and fairness bless this land.
